Experience the ultimate highlights of the north with Seal Travel's unique Iceland tours and packages.

Soak in the midnight sun from the decks of an authentic seal fishing boat.

By the famous shark delirium, hauri - washed down with a fiery shot of Brennivín!

Roll a beautiful Icelandic horse through the stunning scenery of Hnappveggi.

And take home a distinctive and durable Icelandic sweater from the country's largest wool factory.

We know the north of Iceland like the back of our hand. With our local insider knowledge and a strong network of trusted partners, we curate the most exciting and unique range of things to do in Iceland - from the most scenic of the north to the most exciting of the south. So when you're ready to get an even better deal on your northern Iceland holiday?

We are fortunate enough to be one of the last trusted areas in Iceland which means that we have a lot of space for more guests, untouched nature and unadorned landscapes.

No strange tour for individuals, groups, incentives and conferences. Call us today if you are looking for the best deal on your next trip to the north of Iceland.
